* In the Accounts before the House, the expenditure for the Civil Service is given for the first part of 1831, only. The appropriation for the Civil Service was kept as a separate Fund, for which a sum was annually appropriated by the Legislature, until 1835, when the payments were all included in the General Expenditure. The accounts of the Receipts and Expenditure of this Fund had before the House, extend only to the 30th June, 1831, therefore the sums for 1831 and 1832, found in the column headed "Appropriation for the Civil Service," are the balance of that Fund remaining on hand on 1st July, 1831, therefore completing the service of that year, and for 1832, the amount granted in bulk, for the Civil Service. A portion of the expenses of 1832 also, are covered by the payments made in 1833.
